The Don Vista Group would like to announce that they contributed $75 to Pinellas County Central Office in December.

This was accidentally left out off of the Contribution page in the January issue of the Plain and Straight.

PICK UP YOUR GROUP AND TAKE THEM ON THE ROAD WITH THE:
AA ROAD SHOW UNITY MEETING

It's easy, just go to:

http://www.aapinellas.org/meetings/unity_sign_up_form.asp and complete the form to sign your home group up to host the Intergroup Unity Meeting for one Saturday.

The position of Unity Meeting Alternate Chair was extremely gratifying and fun. So much so, that when it was election time, I stood for the position of the Unity Meeting Chairperson. One month into this new commitment and the support from the fellowship has been heartwarming. Thank you for letting me be of service.

PINELLAS COUNTY UNITY SPEAKERS MEETING

DEGEORGE PLAZA ON STARKEY ROAD ON SATURDAY NITE AT 8 P.M.

HISTORY OF THE PINELLAS COUNTY INTERGROUP UNITY SPEAKERS MEETING

Upon researching the archives with the help of Maria H. we have been unable to trace the Pinellas County Intergroup meeting farther back than 1969. At that time, it was formed as a means of bringing together the groups in Pinellas County. The Pinellas Unity Speakers Meeting was held at the Catholic Daughters Hall.

There were approximately 35 to 40 AA groups in the area and there was a need for a Saturday night meeting and also a need for financial support for Central Office. The Groups in the county at that time provided speakers for the meeting on a rotating basis.

In 1978 it moved to St Mary's Center at 514 - 4th St South. From 1982-1984, Randy M and her husband set up this meeting every week. Don B. was on the steering committee. Member named Doreen baked cakes and they supplied donuts and cookies.

The meeting changed to All Pinellas Unity in 1987 and was moved to High Point Methodist Church.

Later it was moved to St Paul's Catholic Church on 20th Ave and 12th St and stayed there until 1996.

In 1997, the Log Cabin became its home and was known as Intergroup Unity Speakers Meeting.

DeGeorge Plaza became it's home in 2002 where it is held to-day. We are carrying on this meeting in the same fashion and for the same reasons as the Original Unity Meeting.

HAPPY NEW YEAR EVERYONE

The January 3rd meeting was hosted by the Ascension Group. This meeting is held on Tuesday night at 8 p.m. at the Church of the Ascension - 701 Orange Ave in Clearwater.

It is a closed meeting and is held in the Lambert Room. It is small meeting and is very friendly. Todd R. very ably chaired the meeting. Louie C. read the Preamble and Loretta H. read How It Works. Martha H. was the first speaker. She lived in Connecticut and moved to Florida 30 years ago. She began drinking in her late teens. She was an example of self-will run riot. She had a The January 3rd meeting was hosted by the Ascension Group. Their meeting is held on Tuesday nite at 8 p.m. at the Church of the Ascension on 701 Orange Ave in Clearwater. Large family (4 sons and 2 daughters). She became angry with her husband and ended up drinking at him. She was depressed and spent a lot time in the poor me's.

She finally had 2 car accidents within 15 minutes.

This was in July 1963. Her Doctor gave her the number of AA and she went to a meeting and saw a lady knitting. She thought she was in the right place. She was introduced to laughter and happy people. Everyone was bright eyed. She was in AA for 7 years and then went out.

Her sobriety date is February, 1974. The day after her first day back, she felt that it was the greatest day of her life. The people in the rooms helped her and she felt like she was floating in their arms. She was told 'Change your attitude or get drunk'. "Get in the middle and listen". She came to believe that God loves her. She moved to Florida and got a new sponsor. She worked the steps with her and walks with God every day. She has found that God works through people. She passes her medallions on to her friends.

The second speaker was Oriane W. She expressed that it was an honor to speak. Her sobriety date is March 11, 2006. She was born in Virginia and her Dad was in the service.

Her family moved to Florida when she was 13 years old. She hated herself and felt depressed and hopeless. She graduated from college and wonders how she did it, while drinking. She thought that AA was for learning how to drink and she was shaking and scared at her first meeting. She has had 3 sponsors and felt that they were the best sponsors in the world. She found that the steps are important. Oriane is grateful for the AA program and feels a responsibility to help others. She speaks when asked and chairs a beginners meeting. She sponsors several women. She never forgets where she came from and cares about being a good person. Her Home Group is great and the members believed in her and were very important to her sobriety. She emphasized "Don't drink no matter what".

The Real Happy Hour Group hosted the January 10th meeting. Randy R, chaired the meeting. Randy was very excited about sky-diving and he had been doing just that four times lately and the last time, he hurt his back severely. However he showed up and did a spectacular job. Wendy B, read the Preamble and Julie K. read How It Works.

Jeff M. was the first speaker and he began with what it was like, what happened and what it is like now. Jeff's uncle (a preacher) died when Jeff was 10 years old. He was Jeff's best friend and Jeff did not know how to deal with it.

He developed a resentment which lasted until he did his steps in AA. He blacked out when he took his first drink. He belonged to a youth group for 10 years, he eventually left the church. He got married and has two children. However, he was not able to cope. His wife liked dancing and he liked to ride his motorcycle. He tried to keep up with his wife but he became addicted to drugs and alcohol and was three times worse than before. He became paranoid and locked himself in a closet with his alcohol and drugs. In desperation, he cried out for help. GOD HELP ME! The phone rang and it was his ex-wife saying "Do you need help". It rang again and it was a friend from AA. Then his boss's wife called him. He eventually was entered into a Treatment center.

He came to believe in God and worked the steps. He became honest with himself and does Step 10 daily. He works with other people. Jeff has a good relationship with his son to-day.

Wayne M. spoke next. Wayne celebrated 5 years on January 1. He was born in Cheshire, Connecticut. His reports from school showed no self-control. He was very drunk on his first drunk. He lived near a landfill and he and his friends would go down there and build huts with the stuff they found there.

They had many drunken parties. After he moved to Florida in the early seventies, he spent many hours at the bars up and down the Gulf Blvd. Wayne met a married a lady who had two children and they changed their last names to his and became a father himself. He was supposed to change but he did not and his life became a horror story. He eventually moved in with a friend who got drunk and took Wayne's daughter in his car and was arrested on the Howard Franklin.

Wayne joined AA, got a sponsor and worked the steps. He thanks God at night and asks for help every morning and continues to practice the program. He and his wife share experiences with no alcohol and are grateful to be sober and alive.

Charlene M. presented the chips.

Attitude Adjustment Group hosted the January 17th meeting. This group holds their meeting at the Friendship United Methodist Church at 7 a.m. Mon thru Sat. This church is at 2039 E. Druid Rd. in Clearwater.

Jo S. was an excellent chairperson. The Preamble was read by Robin H. and How It Works was read by Chris P.

Sharon N. spoke first. Her sobriety date is January 1, 2008. She was born in Toledo, Ohio. Sharon has had a prolonged drinking career starting by drinking Mad Dog. It gave her courage and confidence. She finished college and moved to Hilton Head, North Carolina. Her drinking became heavier and she began to take drugs which enabled her to drink longer, Cocaine use increased and she entered a recovery program. When she got out she began again and got caught. She went into a rehab in Alabama and then into a halfway house. She got a sponsor but worked the steps haphazardly which of course did not work. She began drinking again and because alcoholism is a progressive disease, she got worse. The drugs stopped working and she lost a lot of weight.

Sharon entered Sumter Recovery and was given the gift of desperation. She got a sponsor read the Big Book and worked the Steps. Her Higher Power became huge in her life and her life began to change. At this time, Sharon's grandmother who lives in Florida needed help and she moved here. To-day she has hope and has discovered the solution. She has a local sponsor and Monday, Jan 19 she is starting a job in her profession.

The chairperson, Jo S. shared that if you find that a person is bothering you go and sit with them and get to know them. Things will change.

Ruth M. shared next. She is a CIA (Catholic Italian Alcoholic). She was born in Long Island, NY as the middle child of nine. Ruth did not get along with her brothers and sisters. All her siblings were named Mary something. She did not have any friends and was not able to make them she began drinking and crashed her car. She went into rehab and was so lonely; she could feel it in her toenails. She joined the navy and really began drinking and says that she had a hollow leg. She began working for Western Electric Installers but was never happy where her feet were. She drank on the night shift job, She entered a rehab again but she was afraid of people and it took her a long time to learn how to trust.. Finally, she came to realize that her Higher Power would help her, if she let him. She was depressed for 8 years but she found that a brisk walk around the block really helped. She quit smoking and trained to run a marathon. She ran a ½ marathon. She lost a lot of weight and began going places. She was working for Ma Bell and was dropping off her tools after work and was hit by a van. Her body was wrecked and she became very depressed. Ruth has had a great many physical problems and her doctors have been a huge help. She has 11 years of sobriety. She remarked about the signs on the walls in the room.

(THINK – Thank Heaven I Now Know)

Jo S. gave out the chips

The January 24th Unity meeting was hosted by the St Pete Common Solution Group. This is a new group and is held at Grace Lutheran Church in the Annex at 4301 – 16th Street North in St Petersburg. They meet on Monday at 8 p.m. with an Open Big Book Study beginning with a ten minute lead.

The chairperson was Shane S. and the Preamble was read by Dana L. and David H. presented How It Works.

Joe P. was the first speaker. His sobriety date is May 25, 2005. He was very good at drinking and suffered the consequences. He was never a social drinker and always wanted more. He began drinking early and had blackouts right away. He joined the army at seventeen because he thought that the discipline would help him. He was discharged from the army after 9 months and became broke and homeless. At this time he entered a treatment center where he identified with most of them. He avoided women because he did not know how to talk to them. He wanted to be treated like a king the same as his best friend who was married. He met a girl and got married but because his father was an alcoholic, he never learned how to be married. He made attempts to change but he failed. He went to a few meetings where he thought self-reliance was everything but he was wrong. Everything went downhill from there, his kids weren't talking to him and he had lost some good jobs. Eventually, he went to AA and had a personality change. He found new friends and spent a lot of time with them. He went to meetings every day and got a sponsor with whom he worked the steps. The 4th step was like a ship being launched. When he finished, he looked at himself for the first time in his life and liked what he saw. He works Step 9 when resentments come up. He said that God gives him strength. He discovered that things work out the way that they are supposed to. He never thought that things would work out for him. He said that survival depends on a power greater than himself. The bottom line is that he was given a second chance at life. His advice is hang in there, find a sponsor and life will be beyond your wildest dreams.

The next speaker was Larry H. His sobriety date is November 11, 1997. He was born in upstate New York and was raised in Florida. He's the oldest of three with 2 younger sisters. His social drinking lasted about twenty minutes. He spent a lot of time in the lounges, once he went in, he would be there forever. There was nothing cool about his drinking. He was a jerk, antisocial about 80 per cent of the time. He always felt that he never belonged and was definitely not good enough but drinking made him feel better. He joined the Air Force and continued to drink. He went to tech school and was on a big base in Chicago. He then went to Charleston where he roomed with a couple of guys (one from North Carolina and one from South Carolina). He did not want to spend time in the states so he went to Vietnam, Japan and Europe. He had a great time. He worked on planes and spent a lot of time drinking. After drinking his way across the USA and in and out of many jobs, he finally went back to the Printing plant for 30 years. He married a woman who had four kids and did not drink for several years. However after getting a divorce, he began drinking again. After some time, he put himself in detox and met someone that brought meetings in. He didn't drink but was miserable. He white knuckled it and joined a Home group. He found a road map for sobriety and is happy. He stated that trustworthiness and self-esteem are earned. He has been chasing happiness all his life and it is great to be sober. Happiness is a by-product of doing the right thing. He's a good son now and spends time with his 85 year old mother. If she needs him, he is there. This is a life beyond his wildest dreams. He is grateful that he found AA.

Alcoholics are like cats, they are not stupid, but they do stuff when they want to, not when you tell them to. His advice is to follow the steps and show up.

Kevin A. presented the chips.

John R, was the chairperson of the January 31st meeting representing the Palm Harbor Group which is held at the Kirk of Dunedin on 2686 Bayshore Blvd in Dunedin. They have a signer for the hearing impaired. Meetings are held on Monday at 8 p.m. and on Thursday at 8 p.m. For more info consult the Where and When.

The preamble was read by Mike P. and Scotty G read How It Works.

The first speaker was Mel S. She was nervous but her plan was "Pray and Let God speak through her". Mel is from a family of eight and she is the 3rd oldest so she is a middle child with all the ego problems. She did not feel good enough, did not fit in and her self image was very poor. Her first drink changed that. She felt really great and here buddies were different. Alcohol created a delusion for here "everything was great". Her family was loving and she had a love/hate relationship with them. She went to a Catholic school and changed to a secular high school. She had her first drink at 13 and thinks that she was a full blown alcoholic at 13. She got bad grades and lived in her own world. She had her own reality. She gave birth to her first baby at 18 and got married. She used all her attributes and got a good job. Mel's vocabulary and diction are excellent. At 24, she had another baby and she planned her suicide but did not go through with it. Things got worse and she was divorced. Soon after this, she hit her emotional bottom. She could not stand herself however she became aware that Alcoholism is a disease and she was ill. She joined AA in 1985 and really discovered how ill she was and how she could get her life back. She introduced her present husband at the meeting and what a great guy he is. She has had many sponsees and tells them what her sponsor did for her

Jack S. spoke next. He was born in Milwaukee into a family of 5 boys. Drinking in the family was widely accepted and he feels that he has been an alcoholic since birth. He was drinking in 7th and 8th grade. He smoked and drank throughout college. Jack got married and they had four children. They all have a good relationship to-day. He became a person that he wanted to be so that other people would like him. In his early thirties he began to realize that he had drinking problem. He thought that AA was just a bunch of drunks. He was full of fear and entered in to therapy and self help groups. He joined one recovery program that stressed "drink 1 oz of alcohol for 2 weeks and come back and report on it. He could not do it. He joined AA and got a sponsor. He was told to do the steps and ask other members for help. Also was told to take on some responsibilities and help other AA people. Jack thanks God for AA, for making him teachable and giving him a new way of life. AA tells him to do the things that he doesn't want to do.

The third speaker was Matt S. He always wanted to be someone else. He misunderstood all the signals at home and did not know who he was. He has two brothers who are lawyers. He was always told "why can't you be like your brothers"?. He did not want to be like them. He had his first drink when he was 8 or 9 years old. He enjoyed the alcohol but did not being drunk. He kept thinking that he did not want to be me. From age sixteen he went into many treatment centers where he wanted to fit in but could not feel that way. He played with AA and did many crazy things. He joined groups and got sponsors but could not get sober. One day he was standing behind his grandfather who was watching his son dancing and said "my son is a very gentle man". From that time Jack wanted to be like his father. He became sober and free. He likes talking to people and welcomes new people. He has learned that when people tell him to do different things helps with sobriety. He emphasized that the best job in AA is Greeter

Humility

A compilation of paragraphs and sentences from The Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions book and from AA Comes of Age.

At the beginning we sacrificed alcohol. We had to, or it would have killed us. But we couldn't get rid of alcohol unless we made other sacrifices. We had to toss self-justification, self-pity, and anger right out the window. We had to quit the crazy contest for personal prestige and big and balances. We had to take personal responsibility for our sorry state and quit blaming others for it.

Were these sacrifices? Yes, they were. To gain enough humility and self-respect to stay alive at all, we had to give up what had really been our dearest possessions – our ambition and our illegitimate pride.

-AA Comes of Age p 287

We found many in AA who once thought, as we did, that humility was another name for weakness. They helped us to get down to our right size. By their example they showed us that humility and intellect could be compatible, provided we placed humility first. When we began to do that, we received the gift of faith, a faith which works. This faith is for you, too.

- Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions pg 30

The attainment of greater humility is the foundation principle of each of AA's Twelve Steps. For without some degree of humility, no alcoholic can stay sober at all.

Nearly all AA's have found, too, that unless they develop much more of this precious quality than may be required just of sobriety, they still haven't much chance of becoming truly happy. Without it, they cannot live to much useful purpose, or, in adversity, be able to summon the faith that can meet any emergency.

- Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions p 70

No member of AA wants to depreciate material achievement. Nor do we enter into debate with the many who cling to the belief that to satisfy our basic natural desires is the main object of life. But we are sure that no class of people in the world ever made a worse mess of trying to live by this formula than alcoholics.

We demanded more than our share of security, prestige, and romance. When we seemed to be succeeding, we drank to dream still greater dreams. When we were frustrated, even in part, we drank for oblivion.

In all these strivings, so many of them well-intentioned, our crippling handicap was our lack of humility. We lacked the perspective to see that character-building and spiritual values had to come first, and that material satisfactions were simply by-products and not the chief aims of life.

- Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions pg 71

For just so long as we were convinced that we could live exclusively by our own individual strength and intelligence, for just that long was a working faith in a Higher Power impossible.

This was true even when we believed that God existed. We could actually have earnest religious beliefs which remained barren because we were still trying to play God ourselves. As long as we placed self-reliance first, a genuine reliance upon a Higher Power was out of the question.

That basic ingredient of all humility, a desire to see and do God's will, was missing.

- Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions p 72

Where humility formerly stood for a forced feeding on humble pie, it now begins to mean the nourishing ingredient that can give us serenity.

- Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions pg 74

An improved perception of humility starts a revolutionary change in our outlook. Our eyes begin to open to the immense values which have come straight of our painful ego-puncturing. Until now, our lives have been largely devoted to running from pain and problems. Escape via the bottle was always our solution.

Then in AA, we looked and listened. Everywhere we saw failure and misery transformed by humility into priceless assets.

- Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions p 74-75

We alcoholics are the biggest rationalizers in the world. Fortified with the excuse that we are doing great things for AA, we can, through broken anonymity, resume our old and disastrous pursuit of personal power and prestige, public honors, and money – the same implacable urges that, when frustrated, once cause us to drink.

- AA Comes of Age p 292-293

Dr. Bob was essentially a far more humble person than I, and anonymity came rather easily to him. When it was sure that he was mortally afflicted, some of his friends suggested that there should be a monument erected in honor of him and his wife, Anne – Befitting a founder and his lady. Telling me about this, Dr. Bob grinned broadly and said, "God bless 'em. They mean well. But let's you and me get buried just like other folds."

In the Akron cemetery where Dr. Bob and Anne lie, the simple stone says not a work about AA. This final example of self-effacement is of more permanent worth to AA than any amount of public attention or any great monument.

- AA comes of Age p 136-137

Public Service Announcements

Since AA's Eleventh Tradition calls for "attraction rather than promotion," how should we look upon the Public Service Announcements (P.S.A.s), recommended but the General Service Conference and made available to local public information committees at nominal cost.

These P.S.A.s are informative, not promotional. They are not advertisements or even publicity releases as used in the commercial world. They are prepared for the express purpose of carrying the message to the alcoholic who still suffers. This includes letting the general public know what AA is and how it can be contacted. In the 42 years since AA began issuing P.S.A.s, it is likely that thousands of men and women have found AA from broadcast information dispensed via P.S.A.s.

What are AA's P.S.A.s? Most of them are 30 or 60 second messages for radio or TV featuring some aspect of alcoholism and concluding with a suggestion that AA can help, as well as information about how to contact the fellowship locally. Ideally, members of public information committees can make special efforts to offer P.S.A.s to broadcast outlets in their areas. Since some stations run such announcements as a public service, the only cost maybe to the committee for the purchase of the spots from G.S.O. A list of P.S.A.s is available at www.aa.org.

Bill W. fully understood the need for good P.S.As. Regarding public information work, he said: "We are trying our best to reach more of those 25 million alcoholics who today inhabit the world. We have to reach them directly and indirectly. In order to accomplish this it will be necessary that understanding of AA and public good will towards AA go on growing everywhere."

Bill went on to say that publicity outlets-local, national, and international-should be opened wider and wider, always forgoing, however, high pressure promotion tactics. He was always mindful of the need to let our light shine without boasting or making excessive promises that exceed our capabilities. He might have added, "How can we help anybody if they don't know about us or how we can be contacted?"

There are hundreds of AA Public Information committees in North America, and G.S.O. has a Public Information Kit (M-27) to assist them. The enclosed workbook provides shared experience on how to form a P.I. committee, what its goals should be, and what pitfalls to avoid. There is a special emphasis on the need to maintain anonymity in releasing public information materials. It's recommended that members should contact broadcast outlets personally in placing P.S.A.s. The AA contact person is not violating anonymity by doing so or by disclosing his/her AA membership privately to the media person, while emphasizing that one's name should never be disclosed in the broadcast.

The P.I. committees can also make it known to the AA members in their community that they are using P.S.A.s solely to carry the message. While we do not promote AA, Bill W. did not that our public information efforts are necessary and take many forms: local phone directories, distribution of AA literature, and even the simple sign outside a building that says "AA meeting tonight." Whatever the form, he explained, it comes down to "one drunk carrying the message to another drunk," whether through personal contact or through the use of third parties and the media.
